

Judge Richard A. Jones

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff,
v.
ROMAN V. SELEZNEV,
Defendant

NO. CR11-0070RAJ

PROTECTIVE ORDER

This matter, having come to the Court's attention on the Stipulated Motion for Protective Order, and the Court, having considered the entirety of the record and being fully advised in this matter, hereby enters the following PROTECTIVE ORDER:

1. Permissible Disclosure of Protected Material.

The material that is described in the Stipulated Motion is deemed “Protected Material.” The United States will make available copies of the Protected Material to defense counsel to comply with the government’s discovery obligations. Possession of the Protected Material is limited to defense counsel, as well as his investigators, paralegals, assistants, law clerks, and experts (hereinafter collectively referred to as “members of the defense team”).

Members of the defense team may not provide copies of the Protected Material to other persons, including the defendant himself. In addition, defense counsel is required

1 to provide a copy of this Protective Order to members of the defense team, and obtain
2 written consent from members of the defense team of their acknowledgment to be bound
3 by the terms and conditions of this Protective Order, prior to providing any Protected
4 Material to the members of the defense team. The written consent need not be disclosed
5 or produced to the United States unless requested by the Assistant United States Attorney
6 and ordered by the Court.

7 This order does not limit employees of the United States Attorney's Office for the 8 Western District of Washington from disclosing the Protected Material to members of the 9 United States Attorney's Office, federal law enforcement agencies, and to the Court and 10 defense as necessary to comply with the government's discovery obligations.

11 2. Filing

12 Any Protected Material that is filed with the Court in connection with pretrial
13 motions, trial, or other matters before this Court, shall be filed under seal and shall 14 remain sealed until otherwise ordered by this Court.

15 3. Nontermination

16 The provisions of this Order shall not terminate at the conclusion of this 17 prosecution. Furthermore, at the close of this case, defense counsel shall return the 18 Protected Material, including all copies of the Protected Material, to the office of the 19 United States Attorney, or otherwise certify that the material has been destroyed.
